WEEK THREE

_ I DEVOTE MYSELF TO THE WORD & PRAYER

We know because of the finished work of Jesus on the cross that we have God's presence with us always. Through the Holy Spirit God has made His home in us and is with us always. But there is something to scheduling time to read our Bibles, to study Jesus, and then to talk to Him in a dedicated time of prayer. This strengthens our relationship with Him. That helps us to live in the reality of His presence each day. It is just like a husband that schedules a date night with his wife to strengthen their relationship.

A parent who carves out time in a busy calendar to get to know their children better. It is not to establish the relationship, but rather to grow and enjoy an existing relationship.

Read: Mark 1:35 (New Living Translation)

Question 1:

How do you approach this relational habit of reading the Bible and Prayer? What works/does not work for you?

Question 2:

Would you say some of the current habits in your life are making you unproductive or lowering your quality of life or effectiveness as a believer?

Read: Hebrews 1:1-3 (Christian Standard Bible)

Question 3:

God is busy with a conversation and its all about his Son. How do you think growing in your daily devotion to the Word and prayer will help you to know God, love people and impact your world?
